

So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Orrell moved that the house adjourn,

Determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

Said bill was further amended by striking out in the 28th and 32d lines the word "five," and inserting in lieu thereof "six."

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

Said section was further amended by striking out from the word "collector," in the 18th line to the word "provided," in the 19th line, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"And for the speedy recovery of said taxes, the said collectors and their sureties may be proceeded against according to the provisions of the acts of 1824, chapter 139, and 1825, chapter 203;"

Mr. Gantt, (seconded by two other members that voted in the majority) moved to reconsider the vote of the house upon the amendment submitted by Mr. Bowie and adopted by the house to the 44th section of the bill;

Pending this motion,

Mr. E. A. Lynch moved that the house adjourn,

Resolved in the affirmative,

And the house accordingly adjourned until to morrow morning 9 o'clock.
