

By the Senate,

April 3, 1841.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

Before the adjournment of the session on the 10th March last, a bill was passed by the senate and sent to your honorable body, entitled "a supplement to an act, entitled an act to authorise the appointment of a commissioner of loans." As this bill has not been acted on by your honorable body, and as in the opinion of the senate it is highly important that said bill should become a law, we ask very respectfully to call your attention to said bill.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, clk.

Which was read.

Also, returned the resolution in favor of M. Duval;
Endorsed, "assented to," and ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Bowie,

The house adjourned until Monday morning 9 o'clock.

 MONDAY, APRIL 5, 1841.

The house met. Present at the call of the roll the following members:
