To the W^{or} Court of Somerset County. Given the 11th day 1695

Gentlemen whereas there hath been Complaint made to me by several of the Inhabitants of Nantwicks Point, of an Information made to the Grand Jury by John Moclaston concerning their high way — at which I have writt w^{ch} with a neighbour w^{ch} me & brother the wayes whereof the Complaint is, and I can see no cause of Complaint in them, for whereas the Road is now, it had been standing this twenty years or more I think for the whole length of the Point, for as they say Men may ride a horse where there was hills they are leaved & where hills they are filled up & so on, and to my Judgment and Neighbourhood there is not a better Road in our parts. Gentlemen I am Informed there is several Neighbourhood now arrested by said Information and the whole Neighbourhood that know the Road cannot imagine any other thing than makes or spoils, therefore I think the W^{or} will take it to Consideration that the Poor Inhabitants shall not be too much
