Maryland By the Ex^{co} of Cap^{ts} & Proprietors.
Whereas by General Complaint it hath been signified and also evidently made appear unto us, that several Persons Inhabitants of this Province have been induced to remove out of this Province & some with their Wives & Families some to the Southward & some to the Northward, viz. Carolina and Pennsylvania being mosty deceived & led into sure fancy through a Common & mypty Rumour Report of the great plenty those two places have in, where Reports are raised by Persons having from those parts, but the effects of sure fallacious reports it is well known, that several Persons have by sad experience tryed, some returning again from the same in a poor Condition and others Willing to return if they could, but are unable to return for their Estates here, & by their removal spent or lost most or all of their Substance, whereby they have incapacitated themselves to make any return. And for as much as it hath been made Manifest here that several other Persons have been persuaded & carried out of this Province through a vain & giddy head
