

And the Deft by Robert Smith his Attorney comes and finds the Tres and Injury and saith that y^e eight hundred pounds of Tobacco laid in the Pet Declaration the Deft ought not to pay repay to the Pet again because by the Pet Declaration it is acknowledged y^e is Taylor the allowed Tobacco to both said Parties Pet
And the Pet for by all puts himself upon the Court also Worthington pro Pet