So the house refused to adopt said order.

The question again recurred upon the adoption of the order.

Mr. Graves called for the previous question.

Mr. Nicols of Caroline, rose to a point of order, that the previous question was not in order, as no rules had been adopted for the government of the house.

The Speaker decided that the previous question was in order.

From which decision Mr. Nicols of Caroline, appealed.

The question was then put,

Shall the opinion of the chair stand as the judgment of the house?

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Nicols of Caroline,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:
