So the house sustained the opinion of the chair.

Mr. Tuck moved that the house adjourn;

Which motion the Speaker decided to be then out of order.

The Speaker then put the question,

Shall the main question be now put? which was

Determined in the affirmative.

The question then recurred upon the order of Mr. Willis,

Which was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Forwood then proposed to offer an order providing for the appointment of committee clerks, which the Speaker declined to entertain, suggesting a doubt whether there was a quorum present, and directed the clerk to call the roll, upon which call thirty-nine members answered;

There being no quorum,

Mr. Biser moved that the house adjourn;

Determined in the affirmative.

And the house accordingly adjourned until to-morrow morning 0 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, December 29th, 1841.
