

And the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the society of the Redemptorists of the city of Baltimore.

And the bill entitled, an act to make valid a certain deed.

And the bill entitled, an act to authorize the several collectors of taxes in Baltimore county to complete their collections.

Severally endorsed "will pass;" and severally ordered to be engrossed.

The rule being suspended,

Mr. Buchanan reported a bill entitled, an act to abolish certain officers in this State.

And a bill entitled, an act fixing the compensation to be allowed hereafter to certain officers under the government of this State;

Severally read the first time, and

On motion of Mr. Buchanan,

Ordered to be printed.

The doorkeeper then returned and reported that he had notified the absent members that their attendance was required in the House.

The question being on the substitute as amended for the bill providing for the resumption of specie payments by the banks and for other purposes.

Mr. Morsell moved then to amend said substitute,

The Speaker said that in his opinion, and if the question were forced upon him, he would so decide, that the substitute having been read through and amended, and the question then before the House being upon the acceptance of the substitute, a motion to amend it by striking out one of its sections was not in order, without a motion to reconsider having first been adopted; but as the practice had prevailed in this House to entertain such a motion, he preferred taking the sense of the House upon the subject.

The question was then put by the Speaker,

Will the House entertain the motion to amend?

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred upon the acceptance of the said substitute;

And on being put,

On motion of Mr. Ristean,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
