

On motion of Mr. Randall,

The House took up the report of the select committee to which was referred the order enquiring into the conduct of Senators Kerr and Merrick, when the nomination of General Wool was before the Senate of the United States;

Which was read the second time by special order;

The question being on assenting to the following resolution:

Resolved by the House of Delegates, That this House think it necessary at this time, to declare that they are fully sensible of, and can never forget the rank, services and talents of General Nathan Towson;

Before the question was put,

The doorkeeper returned and reported that he had notified the absent members that their attendance was required in the House.

The question then recurred on the passage of the bill entitled, an act to abolish the office of armorer at Fredericktown and at Annapolis;

On motion of Mr. Risteau,

The question on the passage of the said bill was postponed until the report of the select committee under consideration (at the time of the return of the doorkeeper) could be disposed of;

The question then recurred on assenting to the said resolution submitted by the said select committee;

Mr. Maccubbin then moved to amend the same by striking out the following, "think it necessary at this time to declare that they."

On the question being put,

Will the House agree to strike out?

On motion of Mr. Maccubbin,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
