So the House refused to lay it on the table.

The question again recurred on assenting to the said resolution.

On motion of Mr. Causin,

The house was called and the doorkeeper sent after the absent members.

On motion of Mr. Sutton of Harford,

The House proceeded with the ordinary business of the session in the absence of the doorkeeper.

The rule being suspended,

Mr. Hammond, chairman of the committee on Colored Population, made the following report :

[See Document H.]

Which was read,

And laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

The Speaker announced that the clerk of the Senate had delivered the following message :

By the Senate,

February 9th, 1842.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We herewith send you an account, contracted for articles for the use of the Senate, which it seems the committee of Claims has not deemed itself authorised to allow. The Senate not having the constitutional power to originate money resolutions, we respectfully ask your honourable body to originate and pass a resolution directing the Treasurer of the Western Shore, to pay the amount
