So the said bill was rejected, and carried with it the rejection of the amendment.

The Speaker then announced that the hour had arrived to take up the orders of the day.

The first order being the order adopted by the House on the 7th instant, "that this House proceed to the appointment of a Treasurer of the Eastern Shore, on Wednesday next the 9th inst., at 12 o'clock M."

Mr. Willis then submitted the following order:

Ordered, That Perry Robinson Esquire, of Talbot county, be and he is hereby appointed Treasurer of the Eastern Shore of Maryland;

Which was read.

On motion of Mr. Boyle,

The House was called and the doorkeeper sent after the absent members.

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The House proceeded with the ordinary business of the session in the absence of the doorkeeper.

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The House took up the bill entitled, an act to abolish the offices of armorer at Fredericktown and at the city of Annapolis;

Which was read the second time by special order;

But before the question was put,

Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the several bills in connection with the State revenue; reported by the committee of Ways and Means, be made the order of the day for Tuesday next, and that they have precedence over all other bills, from day to day, until disposed of.

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House adopt the said order?

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
