

On motion of Nr. Hammond,

Said order was then amended by striking out the following, and whether the proceeds of said bonds not disposed of may not with advantage be directed by the Legislature to be applied to the purchase of the stock orders issued by said company:

The question then reurred on the adoption of the order as amended, and Determined in the affirmative.

The rule being suspended, Mr. Forman submitted the following order:

Ordered, That no extra allowance be allowed to any traveling committee of the present House of Delegates,

Which was read,

On the question being put, it was determined in the negative.

Mr. Schley submitted the following order:

Ordered, That the chief clerk be authorised to furnish the members of this house, for the present session, with such newspapers as they may direct, the expense whereof for each member, shall not exceed the price of one daily paper.

Which was read,

Mr. Boyle moved to amend the same by adding thereto the following, "and the amounts be charged to the accounts of their respective members;"

On the question being put, will the house adopt the amendment?

Determined in the negative.

The question then reurred on the adoption of the order, and on being put,
