So the House refused to accept the said substitute.

The question again recurred on assenting to the amendment proposed by Mr. Forman.

Mr. Duke then moved as a substitute for the said amendment the following :

“That the duties of Armorer at Annapolis and of Adjutant General shall be performed by the Secretary of State, and the offices of Armorer at Annapolis and Adjutant General are hereby abolished.”

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House accept the said substitute ?

On motion of Mr. Presstman,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.
