So the House refused to accept the said substitute.

The question again recurred on assenting to the amendment proposed by Mr. Forman.

Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel then moved as a substitute for the said amendment the following :

And be it enacted, That the salary of the Armorer at Annapolis shall be three hundred dollars, the salary of the Armorer at Frederick two hundred dollars, and the salary of the armorer at Easton two hundred dollars;

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House accept the said substitute ?

On motion of Mr. Forwood,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows :
