

So the House refused to assent to the said message.

Mr. Spencer moved to take up the bill entitled, an act to complete the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland.

Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel, then arose to a point of order, whether the bills relating to the revenue, reported from the committee on Ways and Means, have not precedence over all other business.

The Speaker decided that the gentleman from Anne Arundel was in order.

The House then took up the bill entitled, an act to raise additional revenue to aid in paying the debts of the State.

On motion of Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel,

The following amendments were read and assented to:

Insert in the first blank in the 2nd section "five hundred," in the 2nd blank "one," in the 3rd blank "two," in the 4th blank "three," and in the 5th blank the word "four."

Mr. Forwood then moved to reject the said bill;

On the question being put,

On motion of Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel,
