Determined in the negative.

Mr. Powder then moved to strike out the name of "James M. Coale," and insert that of "John Fisher."

Mr. Carmichael then moved the following message as a substitute for the original resolution and the said amendment;

By the House of Delegates,
March 2nd, 1842.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We propose to proceed to the election of agents to represent the State in the joint stock companies. To enable us to act at this late period of the session with promptness, we propose a committee of conference, and if this course be agreeable to you, we will appoint the members of that committee immediately that we are advised of your consent to the proposition.

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House accept the said substitute?

On motion of Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
