So the House refused to assent to the said amendment.

The question again recurred on assenting to the original resolution ;

Mr. Presstman then moved to amend said resolution by inserting therein after the word "interest" in the 5th line the following: "and that they be instructed to vote for the removal of the present President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and that the instruction for removal of said President does not proceed from any personal objection to the said President, but from considerations of public policy, which grow out of existing circumstances, rendering such change expedient."

Which was read.

Mr. Spencer then moved to amend said amendment by adding thereto the following:

"And that they be further instructed in organizing the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal board, to make as equal a division of political parties as possible, it being the desire of the Legislature to keep the administration of the affairs of said company free from political bias ;"

Which was read.

Mr. Crain then moved the previous question, but the House refused to sustain the call for the previous question.

The question then recurred on assenting to the said amendment to the amendment ;

And on being put,

On motion of Mr. Spencer,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
