So the House agreed to reconsider.

Mr. Gallagher then moved to lay the said bill on the table;

Mr. Carmichael moved to amend the said motion by adding thereto "and make it the order of the day for to-morrow."

Mr. Carmichael then arose to discuss the propriety of making the said bill the order of the day for to-morrow;

When Mr. Forwood arose to point of order, "whether the House could entertain the motion of Mr. Carmichael and permit discussion thereon;"

The Speaker was of opinion and so decided, that the motion to amend the motion to lay on the table was out of order;

The question then recurred on laying the said bill on the table;

And on being put,

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
