

The question then recurred on the passage of the said bill,
And on being put,
It was passed and returned to the Senate.

The doorkeeper then returned and reported that he had notified the absent members that their attendance was required in the House.

The question then recurred on assenting to the amendment submitted by Mr. Buskirk, to the resolution from the Senate, for the appointment of the State's agents in all joint stock companies in which the State has an interest.

Mr. Risteau then moved as a substitute for said amendment the following :

"That Benjamin C. Howard, William A. Spencer, Robert Watson, Richard H. Marshall, Solomen Hillen, be and they are here—
The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows :

by appointed agents to represent the State in all joint stock companies in which the State has an interest."

Which was read.

Mr. Buskirk then moved the previous question, and the same being demand by a majority of the members present. The main question was then put,

Will the House accept the said substitute?

On motion of Mr. Forwood,
