So the House refused to suspend the rule.

Mr. Hopewell then moved to reconsider the vote on the rejection of the bill entitled, an act to complete the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland.

On motion of Mr. Powder,

The House was called and the doorkeeper sent after the absent members.

On motion of Mr. Forwood,

The House proceeded with the ordinary business of the session in the absence of the doorkeeper.

Before any business was done,

The doorkeeper returned and reported that he had notified the absent members that their attendance was required in the House.
