Mr. Speaker—41

It was determined in the negative.

Mr. Starr then moved to amend said section by adding thereto the following:

“And the directors and stockholders of the banks issuing the said notes or certificates of deposit under the denomination of five dollars, shall in their individual capacity be held liable for the redemption of said notes or certificates of deposit; nor shall any bank or banks receive or issue any small notes or certificates of deposit other than those of their own issue;”

Which was read.

On the question being put,

On motion of Mr. Buskirk,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
