So the said bill was passed and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Buchanan,

Leave was granted to Messrs. Buchanan, Shaw and Buskirk, to bring in a bill relating to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The House took up the bill entitled, an act to prohibit any corporation or individual or association of individuals, to issue any paper intended to circulate as money or currency;

Read the second time;

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The following amendments were read and assented to:

Strike out all from the word "Maryland" in the 2nd line of the 1st section to the word "who" in the 15th line, and insert "that from and after the passage of this act no person or association of persons shall either directly or indirectly issue, pay out, receive or deliver, or attempt to emit or circulate any bill, note, or other evidence of debt, intended to circulate as money or currency, except as authorised by law, and that any person or persons."

Strike out the 3rd section.

Mr. Sutton of Kent then moved to amend the said bill by adding as an additional section the following:

And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to effect the citizens of Kent county;

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on the passage of the said bill;

And on being put, it was passed.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The title of said bill was stricken out and the following inserted:

An act to prohibit any individual or individuals from issuing any paper intended to circulate as money or currency.

On motion of Mr. Schley,

The House took up the bill from the Senate entitled, an act to divorce Charlotte Shellman from her husband Jacob Shellman;

Read the second time;

On motion of Mr. Geyer,

The following amendments were read and assented to:

Strike out "a mensa et thoro," and insert "a vinculo matrimonii."

Strike out the 2nd section of said bill.
