

Which was read the first and by special order the second time ;
Mr. Sutton of Kent moved to strike out in the said report the following:

"The committee also bear testimony to the promptness with which the work has been furnished ;"

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on concurring in the said report ;
And on being put,

It was determined in the affirmative.

The House then took up the following bills from the Senate:

The bill entitled, an act to authorise the trusts therein mentioned ;

Read the second time and rejected.

The bill entitled, an act to prevent the collection of excessive wharfage in the city of Baltimore ;

Read the second time.

Mr. Richardson of Baltimore moved to reject the said bill ;

On the question being put,

Will the House reject the said bill ?

On motion of Mr. Richardson of Baltimore,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.
