

where liberal hands effuse envied treasures, and the sunny wings of innocence and love protect the scene.

Go then, to receive the warm salutations of friends, and the welcome plaudits of a confiding constituency; whose interest you have been endeavoring to promote; and may happiness attend you.

And in conclusion permit me to say, that if there be in our language, one word which is full of meaning, which arouses the nobler feelings of the heart, and which is fully calculated to impress a deep sensation, it is the word "farewell." The poet has truly said,

Pen cannot paint, tongue cannot tell,
The keen sensations of the word farewell.

With sentiments of the purest esteem and respect, with feelings that I cannot find language sufficiently strong to express, I now bid you, farewell.

Mr. Randall submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Adjutant General be required to furnish Captain William H. Smith of the Eagle Light Infantry, Baltimore country, with fifty knapsacks (such as furnished to the National Guards of Frederick city,) and fifty powder flasks, upon his giving sufficient security for the safe keeping and return of the same.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Hollman, chairman of the committee on Claims, reported a bill entitled, an act for the payment of the journal of accounts;

Read the first and by special order the second time, passed and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Hollman submitted the following resolution:

Whereas, in the opinion of this General Assembly, the duties of the clerks of the House of Delegates and of the Senate are extremely arduous, and in consideration of the faithful discharge of their respective offices; and whereas, it has been usual without exception to pay to the said officers additional compensation—therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby directed to pay out of any unappropriated money in the treasury, to John Nick. Watkins, chief clerk of the House of Delegates, and to Joseph H. Nicholson, chief clerk of the Senate, the sum of one hundred dollars each; to Peter Webb, assistant clerk of the House of Delegates, and to John N. Watkins, assistant clerk of the Senate, the sum of one hundred dollars each; and to Marcy Fountain, John B. Henderson, V. H. Kalkman, Tillotson Janney, John P. Milton and H. R. Bowie, committee clerks to the House of Delegates, the sum of fifty dollars each; and to James C. Reyner and John N. Gordon, committee clerks to the Senate, the sum of fifty dollars each.
