So it was determined in the negative.

Mr. Owens of Anne Arundel then arose to a point of order, whether the House could entertain the order, as it sought to change one of the standing rules of the House.

The Speaker was of opinion, and so decided, that it ought to lay on the table.

It was accordingly laid on the table.

Mr. Johnson submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay to William Glover or order, twenty-four dollars, for attendance in the Senate six days, as assistant door-keeper during the present session.

Which was read the first, and by special order the second time;

Mr. Morsell then moved to amend said resolution by adding thereto the following:

“And that the pay of the assistant be deducted from the pay of the regular doorkeeper.”

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on assenting to the said resolution;

And on being put,

It was assented to and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Schley submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Adjutant General be and he hereby is required to furnish Capt. Daniel Brengle with fifty knapsacks, by his giving security for their good keeping and return.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Risteau moved to reconsider the vote on the resolution allowing the clerks additional compensation;

On the question being put,

On motion of Mr. Nicols of Dorchester,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows:
