So it was passed and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Buskirk submitted the following message:

By the House of Delegates,

March 10th, 1842.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We return you the bill entitled, an act to complete the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for other purposes, and respectfully request you to recede from your adherence to your second and third amendments, in order that the difference between the Houses may be adjusted by a conference.

The importance of this bill to the State as a financial measure, renders its passage highly necessary at this time, and we trust that the Legislature may not adjourn without an accommodation
