

Mr. Nicols of Caroline, moved to amend said order by adding thereto the following:

And also on the anniversary of every victory achieved by the American troops in the war of the revolution and in the last war with Great Britain;

Which was read;

On the question being put,

Will the house accept the said amendment;

It was determined in the negative.

The question then recurred on the adoption of the original order;

And on being put,

It was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. Johnson submitted the following resolution,

Resolved, That the treasurer of the western shore be, and he is hereby authorised and required, to pay to Andrew Slicer, the sum of twenty dollars and eighty-three cents, being the amount due Sarah Wyndham for pension per resolution No. 42 of 1821, to the 5th day of August 1841, the day of her death.

Which was read the first time, and referred to the committee on Pensions and Revolutionary Claims.

Mr. Gallagher submitted the following message,

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

By the House of Delegates,

January 7th, 1842.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We propose with the concurrence of your honorable body to go into an election for bank directors on the part of the State, on Tuesday next, 11th instant, at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Tuck,

Leave was granted to the committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice, to bring in a bill entitled, an act to repeal an act passed at December session 1832, ch. 230.

On motion of Mr. Forwood,

The house took up the bill entitled, an act regulating the compensation of the county surveyor, and prescribing certain duties therein named, so far as the same relates to Cecil county;

Read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate.

Mr. Biser, chairman of the committee on Corporations, to whom had been recommitted the bill entitled, an act for the incorporation of Adam Lodge, No. 35, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, reported again the same with the following corrected amendments,

Strike out the word "forever," in the sixth line of the first section, and insert the words "thirty years."

Strike out the word "forever," in the second line of the second section.

Strike out the fourth section.
