On motion of Mr. McKaig,

The House took up for consideration, the resolution in favor of John Stoyer, of Allegany county;

On motion of Mr. Calvert,

Said resolution was referred to the committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice.

The rule being suspended.

Mr. Semmes, submitted the following order,

Ordered, That all bills, resolutions and orders, the effect of which is to take money out of the treasury, shall be referred to the committee on Claims or committee on Ways and Means, before they are finally acted on by this House, and this rule shall never be suspended, except by a vote of two-thirds, to be ascertained by yeas and nays.

Which was read.

Mr. Yellott moved to amend said order, by inserting after the words "ways and means," these words, "or some other appropriate committee;"

The order and amendment were laid upon the table under the rule of the House.

On motion of Mr. Carey,
