

the treasury, of all income derivable from the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, and the Washington Branch of said road; showing the difference between the amount of said income to the State, from the bonds and dividends accruing to the State from said work, and the amount of interest for which the State is liable, in consequence of the bonds issued, and the States' subscription in aid of said work, from the 1st December 1837, to the 1st December 1843.

The clerk of the Senate delivered the following message :

By the Senate,

December 29th, 1843.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We have received the message of your honorable body, proposing to go into the election of a United States Senator, this day at one o'clock, and concur therein. We have appointed Messrs. Gaither and Bowie, to join the gentlemen on the part of your honorable body to count the ballots and report the result.

No other gentleman is put in nomination by the Senate.

By order,

Joseph H. Nicholson, clerk.

Which was read.

Mr. Yellott submitted the following order :

Ordered, That the Chief Clerk be authorised to furnish the members of this house, for the present session, with such newspapers as they may direct, the expense whereof, for each member not to exceed the rate of one daily newspaper.

Which was twice read.

On the question being put,

Will the house adopt said order,

It was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Semmes,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows :
