So the bill was passed and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Wootton submitted the following preamble and resolution :

Whereas, the public voice at the late elections in some portions of the State, was understood to be opposed to the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and it is right and proper than an opportunity should be afforded to the delegates from such sections to return to their constituents, and confer with them as to the necessity of making some immediate provision for the completion of said work, and whereas, the subject of the said completion having been very fully discussed in the present House of Delegates, prompt action could be had thereon if this Legislature were reconvened, and the sitting thereof would consequently occupy but a few days, Therefore,

Resolved, That the Governor be, and he is hereby respectfully requested to call an extra session of the Legislature, to be held at as early a day as to him may seem expedient, on or about the first of June next ;

Which was read the first and by a special order the second time.

On the question being put,

“Will the House assent to the resolution?”

It was determined in the negative.

On motion of Mr. Phelps,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows :
