

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Ecker, Powder, Shaw and Stull.

Mr. Ecker also, presented the petition of E. L. Crawford, of Carroll county, praying for the passage of a law to authorise the commissioners of tax for said county, to levy a sum of money for the purpose therein mentioned ;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Ecker, Stull, Powder and Shaw.

Mr. Hollman presented the petition of John W. Robinson, a soldier of the Revolution, praying for a pension ;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Pensions and and Revolutionary Claims.

Mr. Weber presented the petition of the board of commissioners of Washington county, praying for the passage of a law confirming the appointment of the collector of said county, and making good as the official bond of said collector, the bond heretofore executed by him and his securities as such ;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Weber, Boteler, Mann, Wade and Hollman.

Mr. Lynch presented the report of the Frederick County Bank ;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Cropper presented the petition of ninety-eight citizens of Cecil county, praying the passage of a law for a bridge across Back creek at Chesapeake city, in said county ;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Cropper, Lackland, Harris and Owen.

Mr. Buckey presented three petitions of sundry citizens of Frederick county, praying for a supplement to the charter of the Frederick Town Savings Institution, authorising the same to issue notes of a denomination of not less than one dollar ;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on Corporations.

Mr. Hollyday presented the petition of Merritt Miller, of Kent county, praying for certain relief therein mentioned ;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Colored Population.

Mr. Shriyer presented the memorial of eighty-three citizens of Frederick county, praying that a law will not be passed, authorising the opening of a public road from Clarksburgh, in Montgomery county, by Kemp's town and Brown's mill to Baltimore and Frederick turnpike road, near the thirty-five mile stone in Frederick county ;

Which was read and referred to the delegations of Frederick and Montgomery counties ;

Mr. Yellott presented two petitions signed by George W. Hall, Philip R. Davis, and others, citizens of Harford county, praying