

Mr. Calvert moved to fill the blank with five."

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Hollyday, of Cecil, moved further to amend said substitute by adding at the end of the section thereof, the following, "including the amount of notes of less denomination than five dollars already in circulation by the said banks;"

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Raymond moved to amend said substitute, by adding at the end of the 2nd section thereof the following proviso,

"Provided that any bank may issue such notes to the amount of ten thousand dollars;"

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Raymond then moved to amend said substitute, by adding at the end of the 2nd section thereof the following proviso,

"Provided that any bank may issue such notes to the amount of five thousand dollars;"

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Purnell moved further to amend said substitute, by adding at the end of the 2nd section the following, "and provided also that no bank shall issue more than ten thousand dollars;"

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Purnell,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Lynch	Harris	McKnett
Randall	Harrison	Potter
Worthington of B.	Ford of Q. A.	Stansbury of B. city
Ware	Henry	Graves
Goldsborough	Purnell	Patterson
Long	Lamden	Sprigg, of A.
Lankford	Fooks	Hammill
Williams of Som.	Shriver	Neff
Keene	Biser	Fitzpatrick
Bouchel	Johnson, of F.	Thomson
Hollyday of Cecil	Yellott	Raymond—34
Maffitt	Gallagher

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Chapman, S.	Hellen	Jump
Ford of St. M.	Hughes	Williams, of B. C.
Thomas	Freeman	Clarke
Hopewell	Harrington	Boteler
Hollyday, of K.	Bowdle	Motter
Stewart	Calvert	Hart
Worthington, of A.	Ghiselin	Fletcher
Johnson of A.	Sprigg of P. G.	Howard
Kent	Bowie	Waters
Hance	George	Raymond
Morsell	Archer	Ebaugh—33.