

for building a bridge over Big Elk creek at Gilpins' Ford in the said county ;

Which was read and referred to the Cecil county delegation.

Mr. Hart presented the petition of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying the removal of a turnpike toll gate near the town of Hancock ;

Which was read and referred to the Washington county delegation.

Mr. Ware presented the petition of Robert McCauley, and thirty-nine other citizens of Baltimore county, in relation to injuries that may be sustained by persons living on the lines of the rail roads passing through the State of Maryland ;

Which was read and referred to the select committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Buckey presented the petition of sundry citizens of Frederick county, praying the passage of a law, authorising the Frederick City Savings Institution, to issue notes to an amount not exceeding thirty thousand dollars ;

Which was read and referred to the Frederick county delegation.

Mr. Raymond presented the memorial of R. A. Kirkwood, and others, praying for an act to authorise Joshua C. Gist, executor of Thomas Barnes, deceased, to execute certain deeds therein mentioned ;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice.

Mr. Shriver presented the memorial of fifty-six citizens of Frederick county, asking that no change may be made in their present levy court system, &c. ;

Which was read and referred to the Frederick county delegation.

Mr. Williams, of Baltimore city, presented the petition of Thos. Whitridge and Hugh Birkhead, and others, in relation to the inspection of flour ;

Which was read and referred to the Baltimore city delegation.

Mr. Hollyday, of Kent, presented the memorial of Peregrine Wroth, and other citizens of Chestertown, in Kent county, praying for an act therein mentioned ;

Which was read and referred to the Kent county delegation.

Mr. Clarke presented the memorial of sundry citizens of Washington county, praying additional legislation with regard to hawkers and pedlars ;

Which was read and referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Purnell presented the memorial of Joseph Waters, of Worcester county, praying for relief therein mentioned ;