Phillips	Fooks	Thomson—30.

So the bill was passed and sent to the Senate.

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day,

The House proceeded to consider the bill reported by Mr. Johnson, of Frederick, chairman of the committee on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, entitled, an act to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland, and for other purposes,

On motion of Mr. Lankford,

The House was called and the doorkeeper sent for the absent members.

On motion of Mr. Morsell,

The House resolved to proceed with the ordinary business of the session during the absence of the doorkeeper.

On motion of Mr. Morsell,

(The House suspended the rule) and took up for consideration, the bill reported by him, entitled, an act to make valid the official acts of certain justices of the peace and the district courts, in and for the State of Maryland.

The said bill having been read through was placed in the hands of the Chair.

Mr. Graves moved to withdraw said bill from the hands of the Chair for the purpose of amendment;

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was put,

"Shall the said bill pass?"

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Graves,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:
