

Gentlemen, I have one source of regret attending my association with you during the present session. It is, that the duties which I have had to discharge, and the many demands upon my time arising from my position as a Delegate and from claims which an acquaintance in the State, not very limited have necessarily made upon me, have prohibited a more general social intercourse with you. We are now to separate, never in any probability all to meet again on earth. At this, our parting, permit me to hope that our lives and conduct may be governed by such influences that we may be permitted to re-assemble in that Great Hall where human wants and human imperfections will have ceased to require human legislation—under that Great Lawgiver, whose statute book contains but one law and that of perfect, universal and enduring love.

The clerk of the Senate delivered the following resolution originated in, and passed by the Senate :

A resolution appointing Wm. H. Fitzhugh, to be a director on the part of the State in the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore ;

Which was read and assented to, and returned to the Senate.

Also, returned the resolution in favor of Wm. McNier, printer to the Senate ;

Endorsed "assented to" and ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the resolution in favor of the officers of the Legislature ;

And the resolution directing the State's agents to report the condition of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal ;

Severally endorsed "dissented from."

Mr. Freeman, chairman of the committee on Engrossed Bills, delivered the following

REPORT:

The committee on Engrossed Bills beg leave to report, that they have examined the engrossed bills from number 232 to number 315 inclusive, and the resolutions from number 1 to number 60, and have compared the same with the originals as passed by the two Houses, and found the same to be truly engrossed—all of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN D. FREEMAN, Chairm'n.

Which was twice read and concurred in.

The engrossed bills of the House of Delegates from number 232 to 315 inclusive, also, the engrossed resolutions from number 1 to number 60 inclusive ;

Were severally read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The clerk of the Senate, returned said bills and resolutions, severally endorsed "read and assented to ;"

And delivered the engrossed bills of the Senate from number 284 to number 297 inclusive ;
