

CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL—

324; yeas and nays thereon 325; the bill recommitted 326; again reported amended 365; substitute proposed, being a bill to create a board of public works, ib.; taken up and rejected 421; motion to reconsider negatived 422; the original bill considered and amended 423; further considered 425, 426; amended 429, 441; order submitted limiting debate thereon 451; carried 452; the bill further amended 452; and the bill passed and sent to the senate 455; noted, that Mr. Morsell had changed his vote on said bill 456; the bill returned from the senate, passed and ordered to be engrossed 500.

Communication from the president and directors of the, company, received from the governor and ordered to be printed 88.

See Document H.

The president of the, company directed to report concerning the sales and hypothecation of State stock by said company 96; reply received and ordered to be printed 215.

See Document V.

Order submitted for the appointment of a committee to visit the unfinished portion of the, with a view to judging of the expediency of releasing the State's liens upon the work, to enable the company to raise the necessary amount to complete it, and to examine into the practicability of using the rail road as a feeder to the, 97; amended and adopted 100; committee appointed 108; submit their report, of which 500 copies are ordered to be printed 209.

See Document S.

Order submitted requiring the president of the, to give certain information therein specified 151; adopted 152; reply received and referred 166; order submitted, declaring the said reply to be unsatisfactory, in certain specified particulars 231; laid on the table 232.

Resolutions submitted that the attorney general proceed at law to enforce the State's liens on the, &c. &c. referred 175.

Order submitted, that the committee on the, enquire into the expediency of reporting a bill to incorporate a company to complete the, the act of incorporation to comprise certain specified provisions 224; laid on the table 225.

Order that said committee be allowed the usual per diem in such cases, submitted and rejected 254.