

the State of the inspection fees provided for in Section 178 of this Act with respect to each boiler so inspected.

(b) Examination for special inspectors shall be in writing and shall be held by the Board. Such examination shall be confined to questions the answers to which will aid in determining the fitness and competency of the applicant for the intended service and may be those prepared by the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors. In case an applicant for a special inspector's commission fails to pass the examination, he may appeal to the Board for another examination which shall be given by the Board within ninety (90) days. The record of an applicant's examination shall be accessible to said applicant and his employer.

The commission of a special inspector may be suspended by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry after due investigation and recommendation by the Board for incompetence or untrustworthiness of the holder thereof or for willful falsification of any matter or statement contained in his application or in a report of any inspection made by him. Written notice of any such suspension shall be given by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry within not more than ten (10) days thereof to the inspector and his employer. A person whose commission has been suspended shall be entitled to an appeal to the Board and to be present and to be represented by counsel at the hearing of the appeal. If the Board has reason to believe that a licensed inspector is no longer qualified to hold his commission, the Board shall, upon not less than ten (10) days' written notice to the inspector and his employer, hold a hearing at which such inspector and his employer shall have an opportunity to be heard. If, as a result of such hearing, the Board shall find that such inspector is no longer qualified to hold his commission, the Board shall recommend to the Commissioner of Labor and Industry that such commission shall be revoked and the Commissioner shall thereupon revoke such commission forthwith. A person whose commission has been suspended shall be entitled to apply, after ninety (90) days from the date of such suspension, for reinstatement of such commission. If a commission is lost or destroyed, a new commission shall be issued in its place without another examination.

(a) The Chief Boiler Inspector or any Deputy Boiler Inspector shall have free access, during reasonable hours, to any premises in the State where a boiler is being constructed for use in or is being installed in this State for the purpose of ascertaining whether such boiler is being constructed and installed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(b) On and after July 1, 1969, each boiler used or proposed to be used within this State, except boilers exempt under Section 172 of this Act, shall be thoroughly inspected as to their construction, installation and condition, as follows:

(1) Power boilers and high pressure, high temperature water boilers shall receive a certificate inspection annually and shall also be externally inspected annually while under pressure, if possible.
