

of Montgomery County shall appoint three judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County to fill the positions then expiring. As of January 1, 1962, the County Council for Montgomery County shall appoint an additional full-time judge of the People's Court of Montgomery County who shall meet the qualifications provided in this Article and who shall serve until the first day of January, 1970, or until his successor is appointed and qualified. As of the first day of January 1970, and as of the first day of January in every tenth year thereafter the County Council of Montgomery County shall appoint ~~one~~ two ~~judge~~ judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County to fill the position then expiring and to create an additional full-time judge of the People's Court of Montgomery County who shall meet the qualifications provided in this Article. As of June 1, 1967, the County Council shall appoint an additional full-time judge of the People's Court of Montgomery County who shall meet the qualifications in this Article and who shall serve until June 1, 1977, or until his successor is appointed and qualified. As of June 1, 1977, and as of the first day of June in every tenth year thereafter, the County Council shall appoint one judge of the People's Court of Montgomery County to fill the position then expiring. Two of such judges shall be designated as the People's Court judges for juvenile causes and the senior, in time of service, of the said two judges shall be the administrative officer of the People's Court for juvenile causes in Montgomery County; one of the judges of the People's Court handling criminal, civil, and traffic cases shall be designated as chief judge and administrative officer for the said court, the committing magistrates and other personnel. Said judge so designated as chief judge shall be and continue as chief judge and administrative officer for said court until his term expires and his successor is appointed and qualifies, unless said chief judge is removed from office under the provisions of Section 98(e)~~f~~ of this article in which event the County Council shall designate a successor chief judge.

(d) As of June 15, 1955, the County Council of Montgomery County shall appoint a substitute judge of the People's Court for Montgomery County. Such appointee shall serve as such until the first day of May in the year 1958, or until his successor is appointed and qualifies. Thereafter, as of May 1 every four years the County Council of Montgomery County shall appoint a substitute judge of the People's Court to fill the term then expiring, which appointee shall serve for four years dating from May 1 of the year of appointment or until his successor is appointed and qualifies. As of the first day of May in the year 1962, and as of May 1 every four years thereafter, the County Council shall appoint a second substitute judge to serve a term of four years or until his successor is appointed and qualifies. The provisions of subsection (b) of this section, prescribing qualifications for the judges of said court, shall apply to any person appointed as substitute judge. A substitute judge shall be paid and have such duties as hereinafter provided. Upon completion of the present terms of the substitute judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County, there shall be no substitute judges appointed by the County Council of Montgomery County.

108.

(15) Montgomery County.—(a) There shall be five full-time judges of the People's Court of Montgomery County until January 1, 1970, at which time there shall be six full-time judges. The chief