

awarded, until the requirements of the notice are fully complied with. The Court may issue a temporary restraining order without notice to the defendant in the action. Upon final hearing thereof, if the Court is satisfied that the requirements of the notice by the Commissioner to the defendant were not unreasonable or arbitrary, it shall issue an order enjoining the awarding of the contract for a public works, or any further work or payments thereunder if the contract has been awarded, until the notice is fully complied with. The injunction shall continue operative until the Court is satisfied that the requirements of the notice have been complied with, and the Court shall have and exercise with respect to the enforcement of such injunctions all the power reposed in it in other similar cases. Both the plaintiff and defendant in the action shall have the same rights of appeal as are provided by law in other injunction proceedings.

107 106.

(a) There is hereby established an Advisory Council on Prevailing Wage Rates (hereinafter referred to as the "Council") which shall consist of six members to be appointed in the following manner: two from management in the building and construction industry; two from labor in said industry, all appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, from among persons recommended by organizations in the respective groups; and two representatives of the general public appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate.

(b) It shall be the duty of the Council to advise the Commissioner with respect to the carrying out of his functions under this subtitle and to submit to the Commissioner recommendations with respect thereto. The Council shall meet at least twice each year and at other times the Commissioner requests. On or before the first day of January each year, the Commissioner shall submit to the Governor an annual report covering his activities under this subtitle for the preceding calendar year, including each recommendation which he has received from the Council during the preceding calendar year and including full information as to the operation of the subtitle and other information and data he deems desirable in connection with prevailing hourly wage rates.

(c) The Commissioner shall furnish to the Council an executive secretary and secretarial, clerical and other services as necessary to the conduct of its business. The Commissioner may call upon other agencies of the State and local governments for statistical data, reports, and other information which will assist the Council in the performance of its duties.

(d) Appointed members of the Council shall serve terms of three years except as hereinafter provided and shall be eligible for reappointment. Of the members first appointed, the two selected from the general public shall serve terms of two years each; one management member and one labor member shall serve a term of one year each; and the other two shall serve a term of three years each. Any vacancies occurring in any term shall be filled by the Governor's appointment for the remainder of the term. The members shall be compensated on a per diem basis as set forth in the annual State budget from time to time, and they shall be allowed reasonable expenses for travel.