

any article subject to this subtitle made by a manufacturer which is not licensed under this subtitle, shall annually obtain a wholesale dealer's license from the Department. Any other wholesaler of bedding or upholstered furniture may obtain such a license if desired.

(d) Every person renovating any article of bedding, unless he holds a manufacturer's license, shall annually obtain a renovator's license from the Department.

(e) Every supply dealer, unless he holds a manufacturer's license, shall annually obtain a supply dealer's license from the Department.

(f) Every person disinfecting any article of bedding shall annually obtain a disinfector's permit from the Department.

(g) It is the intent of this subtitle to prevent both the manufacture and the sale within this State of any of the articles or materials enumerated in Section 65 of this subtitle, except in conformity to and in compliance with the provisions of said subtitle. If the person or concern manufacturing the article or processing the material has or operates his or its plant outside the limits of this State, the Commissioner, in his discretion in lieu of a physical inspection of the plant of such non-resident person or concern, may satisfy himself by examination of the product made or processed by the non-resident or by other means the Commissioner deems adequate, of the propriety of issuing to the non-resident, the permit or license required by the provisions of this subtitle, or of renewing or keeping in force a permit or license issued. If at any time the Commissioner deems it necessary to make a physical inspection of a plant or factory of the non-resident, he may require the payment by the non-resident of a sum to cover the reasonable traveling charges entailed by the physical inspection, and ~~to~~ HE MAY refuse to issue, or to revoke or suspend any license or permit, until or unless the charges are paid.

(h) The Department may take for evidence, at any trial involving violation of this subtitle, any article made or offered for sale in violation of this subtitle.

(i) Every person doing business at the same address under more than one firm name is subject to the license provisions for each firm name.

(j) The Department shall assign a number to each license or permit issued and shall prescribe the procedure relative to:

(1) Applications.

(2) Assignment of license numbers.

(3) Transfer of license between persons, where such transfer is effected through rent, lease, or sale of the business.

(4) Change in name, ownership, address, or of license classification.

67B.

(a) No person shall sell as new any article of bedding or upholstered furniture unless it is made from all new material and is tagged as provided herein.
