

becoming due prior to the maturity date thereof and all of said certificates of indebtedness, or any portion thereof, may be redeemed prior to their maturity date with or without the payment of any premium in connection therewith, all as may be determined by the Commissioners of Finance of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore at the time of the issuance of said certificates of indebtedness. Said certificates of indebtedness shall mature within a period of thirty (30) years from their respective dates. If said certificates of indebtedness are issued in series maturing at stated periods, and a portion of the principal is made payable annually, the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall annually raise by taxation the amount of money required to meet the interest and the portion of the principal payable in each year. If said certificates of indebtedness are not issued in series, any premiums realized above the par value of the whole amount of said certificates of indebtedness shall constitute a part of the sinking fund created for the purpose of paying the loan herein authorized, and if said certificates of indebtedness are issued in series, the net premiums resulting from sale of the entire loan shall be placed to the credit of any existing sinking funds established for the payment of any loans of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.
