CHAPTER 649
(House Bill 286)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 21-4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's County (1967 Supplement), being Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Prince George's County," subtitle, "Crimes and Punishments," to provide for the offense of breaking and entering a dwelling house and to provide penalties for violations thereof.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 21-4 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Prince George's County (1967 Supplement), being Article 17 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Prince George's County," subtitle "Crimes and Punishments," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, and to read as follows:

21-4. Breaking and Entering.

It shall be unlawful to break and enter into any shop, store room, filling station, garage, trailer, cabin, diner, tobacco house, warehouse, dwelling house, or any other building although the same be not contiguous to or used with any mansion house. Every person convicted of the crime of breaking and entering into any shop, store room, filling station, garage, trailer, cabin, diner, tobacco house, warehouse, dwelling house, or any other building although the same be not contiguous to or used with any mansion house, or as being accessory thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be sentenced to confinement in the Maryland House of Correction or the County Jail for not less than three months or for not more than eighteen months. The People's Court for Prince George's County shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Court of said county to hear and determine the offense provided for in this Section.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall only be construed prospectively and shall not be applied or interpreted to have any retrospective effect.
