

foul pigpen, an improperly functioning sewage system, an unkept junk yard [either] (commercial or private), any excessive accumulation of trash (combustible or noncombustible), [any excessive accumulation of] or garbage, [any] dead animals, a contaminated or inadequately protected water supply or a rat harborage [.] ; [Maintenance of a nuisance shall also include] the maintenance of such poor housekeeping within any building (commercial or residential) that the health of the owner, [any] occupants, employees or neighbors [is or can] may be endangered [.] ; or [Nuisance shall further include] the maintenance of any [such] condition which [does or could] may endanger [the] health [of humans] through the spreading of [such nuisance] the condition by streams, surface drainage, air currents, winged life, domestic animals, [humans] persons or any other means. The examples given in this subsection are not intended to be exclusive or to delimit the type of condition prescribed by this section.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1969.

Approved May 14, 1969.

---

CHAPTER 675

(House Bill 611)

AN ACT to add new Section 45A to Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume), title "Public Education," subtitle "State Superintendent of Schools," to follow immediately after Section 45 of said article and subtitle, providing for reciprocal procedures for the transfer of professional personnel from local school systems to the State Department of Education.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That new Section 45A be and it is hereby added to Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1965 Replacement Volume), title "Public Education," subtitle "State Superintendent of Schools," to follow immediately after Section 45 of said article and subtitle and to read as follows:

45A.

All professional personnel who shall have been formerly employed by local school systems and by the public library systems and who shall be appointed to comparable job classifications in the State Department of Education shall be given credit as employees of the State Department of Education for the years of service rendered as employees of the local school systems from which they shall have transferred, for the purposes of establishing compensation rates and the basic rates for vacation and sick leave credit earnings.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1969.

Approved May 14, 1969.