

(2) When the Commission's submitted statement of objectives with respect to a project to be constructed in whole or in part in one county declares that the project is designed to provide services in whole or in substantial part to the other of the two respective counties, the project may be disapproved with the concurrence of the governing body of the county which is to receive the designed services. Notwithstanding the foregoing provision, the governing body wherein the project is located shall have the authority to direct modifications in location, or change the proposed year of construction if such modification or change will not prevent the services being available when needed., and if there are material net additional costs or expenses to the Commission for the project eventuating from the county governing body's change, the same shall be shared equally by that county governing body and the Commission in order for the change or modification to be effective. THE AUTHORITY TO DIRECT MODIFICATIONS IN LOCATION MAY BE EXERCISED TO EFFECT REASONABLE CHANGES IN LOCATION ON THE OCCASION OF THE ACTION OF THE COUNTY GOVERNING BODY WHEN THE PROJECT IS FIRST SUBMITTED AS A PART OF THE SIX-YEAR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS PROGRAM. THEREAFTER, THE AUTHORITY TO MAKE FURTHER MODIFICATIONS SHALL BE LIMITED TO ONLY ONES WHICH DO NOT RESULT IN SUBSTANTIAL NET ADDITIONAL COSTS OR EXPENSES TO THE COMMISSION UNLESS THE COUNTY GOVERNING BODY DIRECTING THE MODIFICATION SHALL PROVIDE FOR REIMBURSING THE COMMISSION FOR SUCH SUBSTANTIAL NET ADDITIONAL COSTS OR EXPENSES.

(3) In the event that a county governing body in its approval or amendment of the Commission's six-year capital improvements program shall approve the undertaking of any capital project for which there is a lack of, or an insufficiency of, funds from the anticipated funding sources shown by the Commission, then the Commission shall not be obligated to undertake such project in the absence of action by the respective county governing body to provide the additional sources of capital. In the event that as a direct result of the county governing body's change in an earlier approval, the Commission becomes legally liable to third parties, the county governing body shall be responsible for any such liability, and the settlement or release of claims for such liabilities, if any, shall be accomplished by the county governing body upon such basis as it may negotiate with the claimant or by its payment of any final judgment of any court award, and it shall have a right to intervene in any such court proceedings prior to judgment and to interpose any and all defenses available to it or the Commission; and provided further, that the county governing body shall be responsible for reimbursing the Commission for any expenditures made to third parties for services or property directly attributable to the Commission's implementation of any project which is modified or vetoed and made obsolete or unnecessary by any such change. The Commission's right, title and interest in any items for which reimbursement has been made shall be conveyed to the county governing body.

(4) Within five days after its final action, annually, with respect to the Commission's capital improvements program submitted to it, each county governing body shall transmit to the Commission noti-
