

torial in the college newspaper. It is so utterly devoid of fairness and equity to the student that, if it were to become law, it would most likely fan the flames of campus unrest rather than accomplish its original purpose.

It should be noted that our universities and colleges are not without present powers to deal with disruptive activities or even with misconduct or misbehavior. They all possess the statutory or inherent right to expel or suspend a student or to inflict a variety of other penalties.

For these reasons, I have decided to veto this Bill.

Honorable Thomas Hunter Lowe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 27 and am returning it to you.

This Bill revises those provisions of Article 43 of the Annotated Code of Maryland dealing with medical practices in the State. While the Bill represents a desirable revision of those provisions of Article 43, I have been advised by the Attorney General's office that there is an irreconcilable conflict between House Bill 27 and Senate Bill 404 which was enacted by the General Assembly, and that the conflict could not be resolved by the order in which the Bills were signed. For the reason given in the attached letter to my office from the Attorney General's office, which is to be considered part of this message, I must veto House Bill 27.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of the State of Maryland, the Board of Medical Examiners of the State of Maryland, and my office, have already begun to re-draft House Bill 27 to remove the
