(e) The full-time judges of the People's Court of Prince George's County shall not engage in the private practice of law during their term of office, and the substitute [judges] judge shall not practice before the People's Court during his term of office.

108(16).

(f) Every full-time judge of the People's Court for Prince George's County shall be paid, after the termination of active service, if he is at least sixty-five years of age, a pension or salary calculated at the rate of five hundred dollars ($500.00) per annum for each year, or any part thereof, of active service, up to and including sixteen years of such active service, so that the maximum pension or salary for such service payable hereunder to any person shall not exceed the sum of eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00) per annum, provided, however, that no person serving less than twelve months as a judge under this subsection shall receive a pension or salary, unless such person involuntarily be caused to resign or to retire therefrom because of sickness or physical incapacity or disability before the termination of the prescribed minimum period of service. Provided, further, however, that any such judge who has retired or who hereafter voluntarily retires from active service after reaching the age of sixty-five years and resumes the practice of law, shall not be entitled to the pension or salary provided by this subsection, or any portion thereof. In the event that a retired judge engaged in the practice of law should thereafter relinquish such practice and notify the County Commissioners and internal auditor of Prince George's County of such fact, then, from and after the date of such notification the judge shall be entitled to all the benefits provided by this subsection. This subsection shall apply to all judges already retired from active service except as provided herein. Any former judge who accepts any salaried public office or position, municipal, county, State or federal, shall not be paid any pension or salary so long as he remains in such office or position. In the event that a retired judge serving in any salaried public office or position as above enumerated, should thereafter relinquish such office or position and notify the County Commissioners and internal auditor of Prince George's County of such fact, then from and after the date of such notification the judge shall be entitled to all the benefits as provided by this subsection. The County Commissioners of Prince George's County are hereby expressly authorized to levy for and pay pensions and salaries to such former judges of the People's Court who served on the said court upon the terms and for the periods as herein provided; and any such [provisions] provision heretofore made is hereby ratified and confirmed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1969.
