

the present sheriff of the county, and the sheriff of the several counties now are, and shall perform such other duties as shall be required of him by the county.

The warden of the jail shall provide all needed supplies for the prisoners in custody under the direction of the county, and abide by and observe all such rules and regulations as may be established by the county concerning the jail building and the inmates thereof, and shall admit no visitors to the prisoners except in accordance with such rules; he shall keep a complete record of the prisoners committed to his custody, when and by whom committed, upon what charge, and when released, and shall on Monday of each week report to the county the number of prisoners confined, with such other information as may be required by it; he shall also keep full and complete account of all supplies received at the jail and disbursements made by him. [The warden of the jail and his deputy shall reside in the jail building.]

Sec. 7-92. Same—merit system employees.

The warden of the county jail, [shall hold his position for the term of two years, unless sooner removed by the county for incompetency, disobedience, neglect of duty or other cause, which in the judgment of the county may be sufficient for such removal, but in no case shall he be removed except upon charges involving his fitness for the position and after notice thereof in writing and the opportunity to be heard upon same be given him.] his deputy, watchmen and assistants shall be in the classified service and subject to the personnel law of Baltimore County and the Personnel Act, codified as title 22 of the Baltimore County Code, and all pertinent rules and regulations formulated thereunder.

Sec. 7-93. Same—compensation.

The warden of the jail shall receive such compensation as the county from time to time may determine to be reasonable and proper [.] [and shall be permitted to occupy the dwelling portions of the jail free of charge.]

Sec. 7-95. Food, supplies, etc., for jail and prisoners.

The county shall furnish the jail building [, including the dwelling part thereof,] with all necessary fuel and all requisite food and supplies for the prisoners confined in the jail, and the warden shall have the same cooked and prepared for the prisoners.

The county shall, so far as practicable, furnish all jail supplies by contract to be made semiannually, and due notice of the award of such contracts shall be given.

Section 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 7-96 of said Code, title "Courts, Fines and Imprisonment," Article VII. "Jail and Warden," be and it is hereby repealed.

Section 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That title 8 of said Code and Sections 8-1, 8-2, 8-3, 8-4 and 8-5 thereof, title "Division Fences," be and they are hereby repealed.

Section 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 11-44 of said Code, title "Fines and Taxation Generally," Article V. "Taxes and Tax Sales," Division 3, "Tax Sales," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

Sec. 11-44. Procedure generally for levying against property to enforce payment of taxes in arrears.