

(5) To provide for the inspection and licensing of camps in the county to regulate their operation and conduct, and to require that they be kept in proper sanitary condition;

(6) To provide for the inspection and licensing of all hotels, rooming houses, lodging houses, and homes for aged or dependent persons in the county, to regulate their operation and conduct, and to require that they be kept in proper sanitary condition.

As used in this section:

(1) The term "dwelling" shall be taken to mean any house or building or portion thereof which is occupied in whole or in part as a home, residence or sleeping place of one or more human beings, either permanently or transiently.

(2) The term "day nursery" shall be taken to mean an institution, establishment or place in which are received two or more children for temporary guardianship and nursery care, apart from their parents or guardians, whether for compensation, reward or otherwise, during that portion of the day or night in which their parents or guardians are engaged in other pursuits and occupations than attending to and caring for such children.

(3) The term "camp" shall be taken to mean a lot or tract of land on which there are living accommodations or trailer parking for two or more automobile trailers, trailer houses, automobile housecars, outbuildings, cabins, cottages or tents separated from a dwelling house or lodginghouse, and operated as separate units for hire or free occupancy.

(4) The terms "hotel," "rooming house" and "lodginghouse" shall be taken to mean any house or building occupied as the abiding place of ten or more individuals, who are not related to the owner or lessee of such house or building, and who are lodged in such house or building with or without meals, and in which sleeping rooms, as a rule, are offered to the public for rental or hire singly and as separate units from the other rooms in such house or building.

Sec. 13-13. Meetings; additional powers and duties.

The county board of health [for the county shall meet semi-annually in the months of May and October and as much oftener as they may deem necessary; they] shall act in conjunction with the state board of health, and shall report or cause to be reported to such state board such facts in reference to the sanitary conditions of the county as they may deem important or necessary; they may adopt and enforce all needful rules and regulations concerning nuisances and causes of sickness within the county not inconsistent with the provisions of the Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957, the Baltimore County Charter, or this article relating thereto, and may regulate all fees and charges in connection with such rules and regulations. Any person who shall fail to comply with any such rules and regulations as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars for each offense. In default of payment of such fine such person may be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, except in cases where other fines or punishments are specifically provided.

Section 6. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 13-22 of said Code, title "Health and Sanitation," Article III. "Nuisances Generally," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:
