

66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Supplement), title "Natural Resources," subtitles "Archaeological Resources," "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish," "Raising Game in Captivity," and "Oysters and Clams," amending the laws of this State relating to natural resources in order to make certain corrections therein concerning language and references in these sections.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 110B, 110F, 110H, 132 (1), 181 (c), 196A and 714C (m) (1) of Article 66C of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Supplement), title "Natural Resources," subtitles "Archaeological Resources," "Birds, Game and Inland Water Fish," "Raising Game in Captivity," and "Oysters and Clams," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

110B.

It is unlawful for any person to excavate, appropriate, injure or destroy any archaeological site situated on lands owned or controlled by this State except with the permission of the Maryland Geological Survey. Nothing contained in this [subheading] subtitle shall be construed to abrogate or supplant any of the powers of the State Roads Commission.

110F.

Any person who violates any of the prohibitory provisions of this [subheading] subtitle is guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction thereof, he shall be fined a maximum of $100.00 or imprisoned for a maximum of thirty days, or subject to both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Each day of excavation, appropriation, or act of injuring or destroying any archaeological site is a separate offense and shall be punishable as such.

110H.

There is hereby created a standing advisory committee which shall be known as the advisory committee on archaeology. The committee shall consist of five members with skill and knowledge in archaeological matters including representatives of reputable museums, institutions of higher education and recognized scientific and/or historical societies or institutions. All members of the committee shall be appointed by the Commission for an indefinite term. Vacancies shall be filled by the Commission as in the original appointment. A chairman shall be chosen by the committee members. The committee members shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for travel and actual expenses incurred in their duties under this [subheading] subtitle. These expenses will be provided for in the budget of the Maryland Geological Survey. The Chairman shall call the meetings which shall be held at least four times a year. The State Archaeologist shall attend all advisory committee meetings.

132.

(1) Shooting or disturbing wildlife in safety zones prohibited; digging in or driving on cleared field; parking so as to block ingress or egress.—It is unlawful at any time for any person, other than the owner or occupant, while hunting or trapping for wild birds or wild
