

animals of any kind, to shoot or discharge any firearm or other deadly weapon within one hundred fifty yards of an occupied dwelling house, residence, or other building or camp occupied by human beings, the area within said distance being hereby defined as a "safety zone," or to shoot at any wild bird or wild animal while it is within such safety zone, without the specific advance permission of the owner or occupant thereof.

It shall be unlawful for any person while hunting to dig in or drive a motor vehicle on any cleared field except with the permission of the owner, tenant, or other person in charge of such land; or to park or leave standing any motor vehicle in such manner as to block the means of ingress or egress to any person's property, cattle ways or fields.

During any open hunting or trapping season it is unlawful for any person, other than the owner or occupant to wilfully hunt for, pursue, disturb, or otherwise chase any wild animal or bird within the safety zone designated in the [preceding] first paragraph, of this subsection, without the specific advance permission of the owner or occupant thereof.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than fifty dollars and costs of prosecution.

(c) The Department of Game and Inland Fish may issue special licenses to nonresidents to hunt on regulated shooting grounds for wild turkey, pheasant, bobwhite, quail, chukar partridge and mallard ducks only as follows: The applicant, if a nonresident of the State of Maryland, shall pay to the issuing agent with whom he or she files his or her application, the sum of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) as a license fee. The agent shall thereupon issue a license and tag to be supplied to said agent by the Director and the license shall bear the signature of the Director and shall be countersigned by the agent issuing the same, who shall at the same time fill out a stub attached to the license blank, the name and address of the licensee and shall then detach said stub and mail to the Director the first day of each [any] and every month in each year, said license shall be void on the thirtieth day of June in each year following the date of issue.

The agent shall retain as compensation for issuing each of the above licenses, the sum of fifty cents (50¢) the balance of said fee to be paid and accounted for as prescribed by law in this article, and the agent shall deliver the license properly executed to the applicant in person or by mail without further cost; said licensee shall insert his or her name on the license in ink at the time of purchase. Such license shall not be transferable and if used or presented by any person other than the person to whom it was issued, such license shall be confiscated by the Director, any wildlife officer, constable or other officer who shall find such license being used.

The penalty for any nonresident of the State of Maryland found guilty of hunting on a regulated shooting area without having first procured a license, or for refusing to show said license when demanded by the Director, or any wildlife officer, sheriff, constable or
